Employment Law Seminar

Mock Tribunal

In order to deliver a better understanding into exactly what happens at a Tribunal hearing we will work through a case study involving a discrimination claim made against a London 2012 Olympics contractor. We will replicate an authentic Tribunal experience; including legal submissions, evidence, cross examination – and of course the decision.

View and learn from the experience of attending an employment tribunal without being in the 'hot seat' yourself. This is an opportunity your business cannot afford to miss! Book your place early to avoid disappointment.

Date: Thursday 15th March 2012

Location: Olympic House, Doddington Road, Lincoln

Registration & Breakfast: 8:30am - 9:00am

Seminar: 9:00am - 12:00pm

Cost: Free of charge

What will you learn from attending this seminar?

- Recent fundamental changes in legal process
- How minor errors can lead to major consequences
- Good industrial relations in practice
- The workings of our Employment Tribunals
- Why taking care in dealing with staff is valuable to your business in a number of ways

Who should attend?

Employees, Managers, HR professionals and any other professionals who will need to be familiar with Employment issues and legislation.
